

ROSES SHOWERED UPON BRIDE AT WEDDING IN HOTEL ASTOR.

Miss Mabel Sittner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sittner, of No. 154 Seventh avenue, was married to Montague Hyman last night in the ballroom of the Hotel Astor. The bride stood under a bell of white roses, which rang out as the ceremony was concluded. Then a shower of roses fell on Mr. and Mrs. Hyman.

Sweeney Stricken by Heart Disease Beside His Machine.

James Sweeney, engineer in the American Steel and Copper Plate Factory, on Fairmount avenue, Jersey City, was working around his engine this morning when he suddenly staggered and fell to the floor.

The fireman ran to his aid, but the man was dead. A physician who was called said that death had resulted from heart disease. Sweeney was forty years old and lived at No. 118 Erie street. He leaves a family.

A Material Difference.

MUSHROOMS are delightfully palatable and healthful, yet some species of Toadstools so closely resemble the toothsome Mushroom as to make it dangerous to experiment with uncertainties. And so it is with Castoria and its imitations. Keep the Castoria that bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher ever in your mind's eye as the Mushroom. And be as particular to remember the counterfeits, substitutes and "just as good" kind as the Toadstools. There may be a resemblance in the package, but the results obtained are so widely different as to make the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher the important feature when buying Castoria.

Why should not our preparation be superior to all other children's remedies? Have not eminent physicians from the Atlantic to the Pacific testified to its perfection? Castoria that bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher is the same of chemical art as applied to a child's medicine.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

The Christmas Month Heralds The Greatest CHRISTMAS STORE WANAMAKER'S Is Completely Ready For Holiday Shoppers Today

VERY extensive evolutions have been taking place throughout the Wanamaker Store during the past few days, culminating this morning. Regular stocks have receded; holiday goods have come forward. Everywhere is seen the intelligent and extensive preparation to serve the gift-buying thousands who now have ONLY THREE WEEKS to do all the CHRISTMAS SHOPPING.

The Toy Store is broader and better than ever before. The Art Wares Salon has such a comprehensive exhibition of Ceramic, Bronze and Marble Art as it has never known before. The Jewelry and Silver Store rejoices in newly enlarged quarters that mean vastly better holiday service. The Handkerchiefs open two new displays—on the Second Floor and in the Basement. The Book Store has extended its boundaries and outposts, and will satisfy fully those who delight in its wares. The Art Gallery, on the Fifth Floor, has been given over to a rare and beautiful display of Art Embroideries and kindred beauty-things.

Public interest in WANAMAKER'S intensifies; and the WANAMAKER STORE rises splendidly to the public expectation. Merchandise and Service will be found better than ever before.

Another Triumph In Women's Coats

Look at the picture. Note that the price of the coat is $20. That is story enough to sell all that we have today, when we simply add, for your information, that the coats are made of lustrous black broadcloth, cut full 50 inches long, and lined throughout with beautiful white peau de cygne. You will note that the coat is double-breasted, and that the back is loose and graceful. It is collarless and outlined with velvet, trimmed with narrow soutache braid. Sleeves are very stylish, and plaited into velvet cuffs, which are also trimmed with braid. A very positive triumph, at the price—$20 each.

Another piece of good news of coats today. Thirty-nine Imported Plush Coats—rich, stylish, exclusive garments, from best foreign manufacturers—are marked at a third below their former prices this morning. Stylishly cut, beautifully tailored, handsome and elegant. Fairly priced at $50 to $120, until today; now at $33 to $80 each.

Thousands of DOLLIES from Germany

Are Waiting for You, "Little Mothers"

Big dolls, little dolls, baby dolls, big-girl dolls, boy dolls, lady dolls—beauties every one. Big ships brought them from Germany, from the Thuringen mountains, where Santa Claus lives for a long while each year—and the little German peasant girls help him make dollies for you.

We have given names to three very beautiful, beautiful kinds. But they are only temporary names—you may change them to Maggie or Gladys or anything you please.

BABY ETHEL, has real eyelashes and the cunningest shoes and socks, $1.50, $2 and $3.
BABY BLANCHE is a great beauty. When she's 23 inches tall, she costs only $1. In other sizes, 75c, $2.
BABY DOROTHY is the loveliest. You'll love her at sight. She shuts her eyes, has soft fluffy hair, light or dark, and—dears!—a dimpled chin. $2.75, $3.25, $4, $5, $6 and $7.50.
Lots and lots of other dolls, too, from 25c to $7. Some are washable—they keep their complexion, no matter how tidy you are. Dolls, all dressed in Germany, 25c to $2. Dolls, dressed here by expert dressmakers; dolls with cloths that can come off, $2.25 to $20. Separate wardrobes, too.

Making a Hit With a House Coat

There will be no question of the approval bestowed on the house coat Christmas morning by the head of the family—if you choose it at WANAMAKER'S.

You can't think up a better gift for the average man, or one that will be more appreciated, than a house coat; but you have a splendid chance to go wrong in the selection, if you aren't careful to pick out the sort of coat that the man himself would choose.

We sell house coats all the year round—sell them to exacting and particular men, and know, by long experience, just what they want. So we have our Christmas stock made in precisely the same way—fine tailoring, stylish, but comfortable cut, long-wearing materials in quiet colors, and at a price-range to suit all wishes. A woman can't make a mistake if she buys a man a Wanamaker House Coat. This stock is at its best. You should advise early selection for gifts.

Unlined, double-faced collar, lapels, cuffs and pockets, at $5, $6.50, $7.50 and $12.
Lined, plain materials, $3.75, $4.50, $5, $7.50, $8, $10 and $12.

Utility of Black and Blue In MEN'S SUITS

Men have long ago found out what splendid, satisfactory, all-around colors these two are, in materials for suits. They always make a man look handsomely dressed—quietly, but well. That is, if the suit is properly taken care of. They "go with" more different colors of neckties and shirts than any others you can mention—except, possibly, gray. The coats can be worn with lighter trousers, for variety's sake. And the suits never go out of date.

All of which explains why we always carry such a large stock of these suits—varied as to materials, styles and prices. Illustrations—Winter weights:

Double and single-breasted Suits of fine all-wool black cloth; lined with Venetian cloth. Dressy and serviceable, at $15.
Double and Single-breasted Suits of black or blue cheviot; stylish and durable, at $15.
Double-breasted Suits of rough-faced blue cheviot—one of the most stylish suits shown this season—at $18.
Single and Double-breasted Suits of black or blue cheviot; very dressy, at $20.
Better qualities, at $25 and $30.
And every suit in the collection above is a typically "Wanamaker good value."

At $5---Silk Waists worth $6 to $7.50
At $3.75---Silk Waists worth $5

If you're still in a receptive mood, here's something to appreciate: New, crisp chiffon taffeta, soft mescaline or crepe de Chine, in lustrous black or beautiful colors, light or dark.
The $3.75 Waists—properly worth $5—are lace-trimmed in the newest effects, or plaited and stitched in smart fashion—distinctive, different. Some cleverly embroidered with dots in panels or all over.
The $5 Waists—always at $6 to $7.50—have V yokes of fine insertion, and alluring lace-trimmed sleeves.
If you're a judge of silk-waist values you'll be the more astonished at these low prices.

The First Snow-Storm Is the HANDKERCHIEF Display At Wanamaker's

What a wonderful exhibition of art needlework it is! How many thousands of skilful fingers have been beautifying these little squares of linen, that are so loved by dainty women. Thousands upon thousands have been gathered here, for the selection of those who wish to give these charming and always appropriate presents. They come from every source of needlework art—France, Switzerland and Ireland being chief contributors.

But, while there are Duchesse lace handkerchiefs here at Fifty Dollars each, there is also marvellous variety and very exceptional quality in the absolutely pure linen Handkerchiefs, at 25c. each.

Fine French Handkerchiefs, for women, of hand-spun linen, hand-hemstitched, entirely plain, at 25c, 35c, 50c, up to $2.50 each.

Women's sheer linen Handkerchiefs, with hemstitched or scalloped edge, and hand embroidered corners, at 50c to $1.50 each.

Men's plain white French Handkerchiefs, hand-spun and hand-hemstitched, at 50c, 75c, $1, up to $2.25 each. The fancy white and colored French Handkerchiefs, at $1, $1.25 and $1.50 each.

Exquisite Duchesse Lace Handkerchiefs, made in Belgium, at $1 to $50 each.

Women's embroidered Irish Handkerchiefs, in almost infinite variety, 12½c, 25c, 35c, 50c, up to $2.50 each.

The assortment of Children's Handkerchiefs is particularly attractive—especially those in fancy picture and nursery rhyme boxes. They range in price from a box of three for 25c, to box of six for $1.
